Little All-American

Hal Morrison, East Tennessee State's brilliant end, won a spot on the A.P.'s first team of Little All-America. Morrison was the all-everything for the State Buccaneers who crowned the season by winning the Burley Bowl game on Turkey Day.

At left is shown Dr. Crystal Theodore hanging a picture of Miss Elizabeth Slocumb in the Elizabeth Slocumb Art Gallery. Miss Slocumb was chairman of the Art Department for the past thirty-eight years.

FRANK G. CLEMENT

Governor of Tennessee

Governor Frank G. Clement is one of the youngest men to hold the office of governor in the state of Tennessee. He has experience as a lawyer and member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He is a native of Dickson, and understands well the vital instruction that a state college can supply to the young people of Tennessee. We, the students of East Tennessee State College, appreciate his active interest in our progress.

DR. QUILL E. COPE

Commissioner of Education

Dr. Quill E. Cope, commissioner of education, has first-hand experience in the classrooms of both elementary and high schools. His experience extends to the administrative level. He has served as a high school principal, a county school superintendent, and an associate professor of school administration.

A graduate of George Peabody College and New York University, Dr. Cope has dedicated his life to educational work in Tennessee.

Thomas Coleman Carson

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1954, do respectfully dedicate this year's BUC-CANEER to Thomas Coleman Carson. We feel that we have been extremely fortunate in knowing him our last four years. Through our association with him, our lives have been greatly enriched because of his interest in the Student Body and his patience and understanding. His willingness to co-operate has not been limited to the classroom. We have benefited in this association to the extent that many before us, and many succeeding ones, carry his ideals and standards far afield to serve them as guides. His lifetime of devotion to his chosen profession serves as a constant challenge to us to pattern our lives after the example he has set.

Mr. Carson was born in Saluda, South Carolina, in 1891. He graduated from Furman University in 1912. In 1924 he came to East Tennessee State College, then went to Duke where he obtained his Master's Degree. He returned here to teach in the Biology Department. Soon afterwards he moved to the Mathematics Department and has been teaching in that field since.

Each Sunday finds Mr. Carson in his accustomed pew at the Central Baptist Church. He loves young people and enjoys teaching them. His hobbies are fishing, hunting, pool, gardening, croquet and bridge.

It is our pleasure to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Carson as a token of our appreciation.

President and Mrs. Burgin E. Dossett

OUR PRESIDENT

One of the most distinguished and erudite figures on our campus. With his winning smile and cheerful disposition, he is always a welcomed addition to any assemblage.

A deeply religious and God-fearing man, President Dossett has instilled in all who come in contact with him a similar philosophy—one of humility, reverence and service to fellow man.

In his six years as president, Mr. Dossett has added to the life of the college as well as to the lives of the students. This contribution is reflected in expansion, growth and beneficial additions to the natural beauty of our campus.

Having been a teacher, principal, superintendent, and Commissioner of Education in Tennessee, President Dossett came to us well qualified, and he has so exhibited these qualifications that he has become endeared to all of us as Our President—A Great Man.

Here are the people who "make the wheels turn" a State College. They work hard trying to serve us. They hear our troubles and our gripes and they still smile and try to help us. "Good morning, how are you?" These people are interested in our welfare and we deeply appreciate them.

East Tennessee State College - June 1953

GRADUATE DIVISION

The Graduate Program was inaugurated at State College in June, 1950. Since then a total of 114 master of arts degrees have been earned. Of these ninety-two have presented theses as part of the requirement for the degree. The total number of students who have availed themselves of the opportunity to take advanced work is well over five hundred. The program is administered by a Graduate Council consisting of fourteen faculty members and administrators, including a director who is responsible to the council for the direction of the program.

GRADUATE CLUB

The Graduate Club, an organization for all graduate students, was started in the fall of 1951. The purpose of the club is to promote better relationship between students and the graduate faculty by providing an informal atmosphere for the discussion of policies and procedures of the graduate program. Activities are designed for both social and cultural enrichment. Highlight of the year's program was the Christmas banquet at which officers for the new year were installed. Sponsors of the club are Dr. R. H. Eliassen and Dr. Fred McCune.

Suddenly to our amazement, we find ourselves trying to grasp the fact that over-night we have become Seniors; college days are rapidly coming to an end, and graduation, which at one time was thought only to be a dream, is growing closer to reality.

We know that we have had the best years of our life at State. We will never forget the things we have done. Dances, ball games, homecomings, and graduation are only a few of the activities in which we have participated. These and the friends we have made have become a vital part of our college life, and will long be remembered.

As long as memory shall last we, the Junior Class of 1954, shall never forget our first three years at East Tennessee State College. The first time we registered . . . all those long, long lines . . . strange, upper-classmen running all over us . . . Rat Week . . . Homecoming . . . and finally gaining enough hours to be a Sophomore. Now we are Juniors . . . only a year to go . . . the dances, outings, the senior breakfast and most of all the feeling of friendship and loyalty to ourselves, our friends, and our school. We have just begun to realize that our college career is almost over. We shall see the activities of graduation week with different thoughts in our minds, for we can see ourselves in the same situation in another year.

Returning to the campus after a year's experience behind us, the sophomores jumped into the swing of classes and school activities. Still remembering the fun of freshman initiation, we immediately began the plan to torture the "new crop." After completing this so-called task, we started looking for other duties. Then came Homecoming—working on the sophomore float—a party for the freshmen.

This is the year that all college students begin to develop into the pattern of college life by taking active part in extracurricular activities, etc. We are even planning the patterns of our futures, and expectantly looking ahead to the next two years of molding our personalities and lives. The completion of this year is the half way mark—the half way mark of cultivating knowledge and memories to last for a lifetime.

Excited, a little lost, and just a wee bit homesick is the feeling of a freshman during his first few days at "State." First, there is the gay whirl of Orientation Week which includes square dances, dorm and swimming parties.

But all good things must come to an end. Next, we are confronted with the problem of registration. Gee, won't those lines ever end? At last all of that is over and we settle down to classes—that is, we try to settle down but all of this is so new that we try to be at a dozen different places at once just to see what is going on.

Then comes the week which has been the horror of all freshmen. Rat Week. Dressed in our bathing suits and sack dresses, we must sing the "Fight Song" until we are hoarse. At night we fall in bed only to be awakened in an hour or two to go to Rat Court. The boys must shave in the fish pond. Oh, won't those Sophomores ever leave us alone? Rat Week is climaxed by the Rat Race before the Homecoming game.

After this we have a sense of belonging and we begin to look forward to the coming years with hope and confidence.

The East Tennessee State College Band under the direction of Mr. J. Marvin Lindley is a sixty-five piece organization which was featured during the football season on the gridiron and in parades. The Band also supported the school at basketball games and pep rallies.

At the close of a very successful marching season, including the band's participation in the Burley Bowl festivities and a trip to Murfreesboro, the Concert Band was organized. During the Spring quarter, this group made a three-day tour of East Tennessee, which included Greeneville, Morristown, Newport and Knoxville. The Concert Band also presented its annual Spring Concert during the Spring quarter, which included several special numbers by members of the band.

Math Club

The Math Club, although one of the smallest clubs on the campus, makes up the difference in its wide variety of programs. Of all the arts, mathematics probably holds greater mysteries than all the rest. Through the years, math has been associated with people of superior intelligence, and it was long thought that math was a magical trick of taking figures and arriving at an answer. However, in the modern years, it has been realized that mathematics is an art that all should learn. It was with this thought in mind that the Math Club was formed on State's campus. The club strives to promote a program which will give all students an opportunity to learn and enjoy the pleasures of true mathematics. President, George Stevenson.

State Loses Opener 21-13

Taking advantage of quick-breathing opportunities and Buccaneer mistakes with the slippery pigskin, on a rain-soaked gridiron, the Austin Peay Governors scored all 21 points as the result of alert play and ability to capitalize on opportunities in a ruggedly fought contest which saw the score knotted 13-13 at halftime.

Buccaneers Win Over C-N Eagles 25-0

Scoring in every period the Bucs romped over the Carson-Newman Eagles 25-0 in the annual homecoming classic. "The Arm" Wilson and "Glue Fingers" Morrison were too much for the Eagles as Wilson hit Morrison twice for touchdowns, one for 55 yards with Morrison on a dead run.

Bucs Lose to O. V. C. for 33-13

Failing to click on offense, the Buccaneers bowed before a strong Western Kentucky team 33-13. Western Kentucky, member of the Ohio Valley Conference, had to come from behind and never lost their lead. Saulsbury and Matthews scored for State. Morrison and Huddle were standouts in the Buc line.

The two-touchdown favored T. P. I. Eagles went down to the Mighty Buccaneer Eleven 21-13. This was rated by many sports authorities as one of the major upsets in small college play in '53. Boone, Henderson and Morrison were immovable in the Buc line. Wilson and Ford were the sparkplugs in the State backfield.

State Loses to Scotties 26-20

The Buccaneers journeyed to Maryville only to lose to Maryville College 26-20. Wilson hit Morrison for two touchdown passes and Foster added a 72-yard run for the cause, but it was just not enough to overtake the Clarence Sheppard and Company. "Wedge" Henderson played excellently in the Buc line.

BUCS WIN BURLEY BOWL

STATE THROTTLES EMORY AND HENRY 48 TO 12 IN THE SECOND ANNUAL BURLEY BOWL TILT

East Tennessee State's Buccaneers scored seven touchdowns and six extra points to defeat the Emory and Henry Wasps 48-12 in the ninth annual Burley Bowl football game before 9,300 frozen fans.

The Bucs' first T.D. came early in the first quarter when the Wasps' Phil Long, back to kick on his own 45, received a bad pass from center, decided to run and lost two yards. The Bucs took over at that point and headed for pay dirt. Ford took a pitch-out and swept around right end for the score. Morrison missed the try for the extra point.

The Buccaneers struck again when Bob Porter recovered an Emory and Henry fumble on the Wasps 24. "The Arm" Wilson tossed a pass to "Glue Fingers" Morrison in the end zone for the second touchdown. Morrison kicked the extra point for a 13-0 lead.

In the second period, Wilson, on his 34, handed off to Saulsbury who went all the way to the Wasps 12. Several plays later, "The Arm" passed to Foster who went over for the T.D. Morrison's extra point made it 20-0.

State's longest run came in the third period when Foster took a Wasp punt on his own 30 and scampered 70 yards to score. Morrison kicked the ball through the uprights and East Tennessee State was out front 34-0.

The final touchdown was the lengthiest. Emory and Henry's Bob Henry intercepted an attempted lateral by State on their own 11-yard line and churned off 89 yards for the T.D. that made the final score read 48-12.

Standouts in the Buc forward wall were Jim Huddle, Bob Porter and Hal Morrison, while Pete Wilson, Jerry Ford and Buddy Saulsbury were spark-plugs in the Buccaneer backfield.

Buccaneers Top Appalachian 21-19

Coming from behind, 19-7 at halftime, the Buccaneers fought savagely in the second half to win over Appalachian State 21-19. "The Arm" Wilson hit his favorite receiver, "Glue Fingers" Morrison, for two touchdown passes. Jerry Ford pushed over a T.D. in the fourth quarter to put the game on ice, but not before "Wedge" Henderson intercepted a Mountaineer pass late in the quarter that broke up their last threat.

Bucs Lose to Middle Tennessee State 34-28

The State Buccaneers matched the highly favored Middle Tennessee State College Raiders touchdown for touchdown until the fourth quarter with the final score 34-28 in favor of the Raiders. Jerry Ford was the mainstay in the Buccaneer attack. Ford repeatedly pulled over the first downs when needed and scored two touchdowns in the process.

Basketball

There is no doubt that the 1953-1954 Buccaneer squad was one of the greatest small college teams in the South. The Bucs completed the year with a record of twenty-three games won and only four games lost.

For the third consecutive year State reigned as champion of the Volunteer State Athletic Conference. After winning the season championship, the Bucs defeated Bethel 79-57 in the finals of the V.S.A.C. tournament.

The Bucs went on to win the district championship of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics and competed in the national tourney in Kansas City.

Girls' Intramurals

Our intramural program is open to any girl who wishes to participate. The intramural program offers a large variety of activities for girls interested. This program is headed by the manager, assistant manager, and director with letter girls supervising each sport. An outgrowth of the intramural program is the girls' extramural basketball team, which played several college and high school teams this year. By participating in the different activities, the girls may win the following awards: TS, chevron, T sweater, and T blanket. Girls winning additional points above their T blanket receive special recognition by having their name placed upon a plaque. In the year's program the following sports are included: speedball, hiking, swimming, tennis, badminton, horseshoes, tumbling, modern dance and softball.

Men's Intramurals

Participation in this year's program has been large. Each activity was filled with ready and willing participants. Teams battled closely and narrowly for championships. The cross-country winner was Val Miller, a freshman. Other activities include tennis, horseshoes, ping pong, softball and basketball. The tournaments were closely followed, not only by the teams, but also by interested rooters for the various teams. Jack Mullins served as manager who worked hard and did a good job in keeping the program coordinated and running smoothly.

Dr. Frank Field

In Memoriam

Dr. Frank Field, registrar emeritus and alumni secretary, died after a heart attack on East Tennessee State College campus May 9, 1954.

Dr. Field joined the E.T.S.C. faculty in 1920. He became registrar of the college in 1924. Since his retirement as registrar in 1949, he organized more than two score E.T.S.C. alumni association chapters throughout the United States.

Field was a member of the Methodist Church, Optimist Club, Rotary Club, where he served as director, treasurer and president, National Education Association, Tennessee Education Association, Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Loyal Order of Moose.

Dr. Field resided at 804 West Maple, was born May 1, 1879 in Greene County, Pennsylvania. He married Jane Wood Parry June 21, 1913 at Waynesburg, Pa.

Dr. Field leaves a life of devotion to his profession and a success in his service to humanity that will live as a monument to his memory.
